

Although I have supported Bush on some issues, I believe that Sinclair Broadcasting is blatantly violating our equal time laws. The company is giving the president a free commercial in some of the most important districts in the country.